

Duxbury Clipper
P 1
3-4-2015

Attack at Kingston shop

Man charged with attempted murder

BY GILLIAN SMITH, EDITOR

GILLIAN@DUXBURYCLIPPER.COM

A Duxbury resident has been charged with attempted murder after an attack at a store in Kingston last week.

Jeffrey Jones, 27, was arraigned last Wednesday in Plymouth District Court after he allegedly got into an altercation with employees at the Champs Sports store at the Kingston Collection. He was allegedly asked to leave, but punched an employee and slashed him in the head with a box cutter. According to police, the employee suffered a cut on high right cheek, as well as puncture wounds to his left cheek. Jones was held without bail pending a dangerousness hearing.